AmcomTech is proud to be a sponsor for the East Bay ColdFusion Users Group (EBCFUG).

A few of the ColdFusion gurus from AmcomTech will be at the EBCFUG's inauguration (Apr 7, 2009) as the user group kicks off it's first meeting.

AmcomTech's staff has a long history of being involved in the technical community by participating and sponsoring user groups, authoring articles for technical magazines, supporting users in support forums, publishing books, and lending a hand to open source initiatives.

We look forward to seeing you.
